

Greek Particles translated with gestures μέν - lean vaguely to one side δέ - lean more vigorously to the other side γε - hit the table lightly with your fist ἄρα - gesture vaguely with one hand δή - nod once, firmly μήν - hold up both hands ἦ - “Hey!” Hold up both hands οὖν - gesture vaguely with one hand γάρ - “’cuz”

τοί - “y’know”

μέντοι - raise one finger (any finger) καίτοι - waggle a finger τοίνυν - slap back of hand into other hand δήπου - add a Canadian-style “...eh?” to the end of the sentence